

ARTISTS in ACTION

Jean Littlejohn

Jean's work reflects a continuing fascination with pathways and journeys, routines and rhythms and traditional patterns that surround us.

The surfaces she creates describe echoes from the past and often evoke a sense of life being 'in and out of focus'. They combine layers of life and experience and aspects of decay.

Her recent work researches a nearby location with special memories and a history going back to ancient times. Walking in the footsteps of our ancestors.

www.doubletrouble-ent.com